THE PATE FAMILY

MISSIONARIES IN MONTRÉAL, QUÉBEC

SEPTEMBER-OCTOBER, 2026 | PRAYER UPDATE

Dear Faithful Friends and Supporters,

Thank you so much for your love, prayer, and support for our family and ministry here in Québec. The Lord is working here and we're grateful for the privilege to serve Him.

Since our arrival in Montreal, there have been eleven families or individuals in the church affected by the loss of a loved one (many of these families lost a family member in their home country). Through the loss of my own dad to cancer earlier this year, the Lord led me to begin studying I Peter more deeply. I've been preaching through this precious book during our Sunday afternoon services. It's been a joy to watch the Lord use His Word to strengthen and comfort our hearts. God's Word truly is sufficient and we've been encouraged watching folks respond to the Word and allow it to change their lives.

I've been preaching through the book of Acts on Sunday mornings and am thrilled to see how the Lord worked in the first-century church and how He continues to build His church today. This series has led us perfectly into our missions conference which will be held in two weeks. Please pray with us for this special time of the year to renew our commitment to the cause of Christ worldwide. The church has a special privilege this year to vote to send and support our own missionary, Jacques Manga. Jacques has been a part of the church for many years and is now following the Lord's calling to Togo, West Africa.

Please, continue to pray for the logistics for my upcoming evangelistic trip to the northern village of Chisasibi here in Québec. While there were a few delays, we still desire to see this trip take place before the end of the month.

We're thrilled to announce that the Lord is blessing our family with our fifth child due near the beginning of April 2027! Please, pray for the health and safety of both Katie and the baby.

In Christ,
